

Cambridge Revision Classes 2017

For the seventh year, the Association of Cambridge Schools in New Zealand is holding Cambridge Revision Classes during the third term holidays. (1st – 13th October). Over 1000 students attended last year and, due to demand, the subjects covered and the number of spaces has expanded.

Who teaches the classes?

All classes are run by experienced Cambridge teachers who are currently teaching their specialist subjects at Cambridge Schools in Auckland. Teachers have access to the most recent and also historic information on their syllabus as well as reports and data from Cambridge examiners.

Class Information:

- offered at IGCSE, AS and A2 level
- all classes cover the Extended Curriculum
- the length of the classes are half day to three days depending on the subject
- held at Auckland Grammar School
- limited to 20 students
- 9.00am to 2.30pm each day

Class Prices:

1/2 day $45
1 day $80
2 days $160
3 days $225

Important Information for some classes:

English Literature

- The English Literature Theory classes will cover essay planning and writing, exam technique and text analysis. These classes are for students studying other texts for which classes are not offered.
- The one day text classes also include the theory that will be covered in the theory class.

Mathematics

The A2 Mathematics class covers Pure Mathematics and Mathematics with Statistics.

History

History topics taught at schools may differ. Topics covered in our revision classes are as follows:

IGCSE

20thC Core Topics:

Peace Treaties, 1919-23

The League of Nations, 1920s and 1930s

The Collapse of International Peace, 1930s

Depth Study:

Russia, 1905-1941

AS

Essay Themes:

France, 1789-1814

Origins of WWI, 1900-1914

Documents Theme:

The Search for International Peace, 1919-1945